

The Henderson County Sheriff's Office will be holding an Emergency Preparedness class on Monday, March 13th from 6pm-8pm and a repeat of the same material on Tuesday, March 14th from 2-4pm.

"An important facet to a family's overall level of safety and security is being prepared in the event of an emergency," said Sheriff Charles McDonald. "We want to educate and empower our community as they take steps to prepare before an emergency strikes."

Class participants will learn how to build an emergency preparedness kit, make an emergency plan and stay informed. To RSVP, call \(828\) 694-3139 or email Julie Kidd at jkidd@hendersoncountync.org to reserve a seat. Seating will be limited to 30 people each session.

The class will be held in the training room at the Henderson County Sheriff's Office located at 100 N. Grove Street in Hendersonville.

Allison Nock

Community Relations Media Specialist

Henderson County Sheriff's Office

100 North Grove Street

Hendersonville, N.C. 28792-5027

828.694.3137 (Office)

828.698.4499 (Fax)

anock@hendersoncountync.org

www.hendersonsheriff.org

“A Brotherhood in Pursuit of Excellence”

While remaining faithful to the traditions of our past, we will be a professional, innovative and responsive Sheriff's Office that strives each day to ensure the safety and security of Henderson County.

"All email correspondence to and from this address is subject to N.C. Public Records Law, which may result in monitoring and disclosure to third parties."